BOUQUET GARNI

President's Message

submitted by Trevor Randle, BCCASA
President

I would like to start off by welcoming everyone to a new and exciting school year. While September is always a lot of work, it is also a time where we can set our goals and tweak procedures that we want to improve for the new year. I also find it energizing to meet and work with the students who enter the teaching kitchen for the first time wide eyed and anxious.

We are fast approaching our October Conference and AGM. I know that Lori and the team from Victoria have been working very hard to ensure that we have yet another incredible experience. While the tours and of course the food will be incredible, to me it is more about the collaboration that we so rarely get to enjoy. Side conversations that happen over dinner or on the bus often end up being the most valuable take aways of the conference.

At this year's AGM, we will be holding our executive elections. Although we are a very courteous group and we have not had an official election for some time, I do encourage anyone interested in holding a position of the executive to put their names forward and run. Officially, at the end of each two year term, the positions become vacant. For those of you who would rather put your name forward for a vacant position only, I will keep you informed of any positions not receiving any nominations.

I am happy to share that our PSA has never been stronger. The membership is at an all time high at 107 members as of September 1, 2019 and I believe that number will rise as teachers from all over the province register for our October conference. While this may not seem like a huge number in the big scope of teachers, since there are only around 70 teaching kitchens in B.C. I would say that we are in very good shape.

"...our PSA has never been stronger"

- Chef Trevor Randle

At our AGM, we will be revising our Constitution to better reflect our PSA and the needs of its members. Please be sure to read over the revised constitution in this or the spring edition of the Bouquet Garni. Most of the Constitution stays the same as it is pretty standard throughout the province but a couple of note worthy changes are to the Honorary Life Members, Executive Committee and the Chapters sections. We will need to vote in the updated Constitution at our AGM to an informed quorum.

As each year comes and goes, more and more Chef Instructors who are strong members of BCCASA are retiring and opening up opportunities for a new generation to start their adventure into cuisine education. I have had the pleasure of messaging back and forth with a few first year teachers but I am sure that I have not been in contact with everyone. If you have a new chef instructor in your district, I would encourage you to get them involved with BCCSAA right away and I would also very much appreciate it if you could let me know personally so I may reach out to them and introduce myself.

Lastly, I would like to send all of our best wishes and good thoughts to two very important people and long time BCCASA members, Lorraine and Terry Larsen. I have shared with you updates on Lorraine's health as Terry kindly sends them. Lorraine and Terry have been two of the most supportive and encouraging people for so many (including myself) long before I entered the world of cuisine education. They have always been leaders and role models to each and every one of us and have been important figureheads that have guided our PSA to be what it is today. We all look forward to seeing the day when they both join us again at our conference bus and continue to be the inspiration that they have always been.

Lesnes' Brain Teaser #45 FALL 2019

What the heck I am! I may look like an ugly brown stick, but don't judge me on its outer appearance. I feel like I am the forgotten vegetable, I have been neglected by many Chefs and I rarely make my way to the kitchen. I have a long history and I will spare you many details of my journey. Although my young leaves can be eaten in fresh salads, I am a member of the daisy family and primarily used as a root vegetable, similar in shape to a carrot or a parsnip. Not particularly popular in North America, I have been known in Southern Europe for over two thousand years. I was not cultivated until the 17th century and today Belgium is one of the leading producers of me. My skin can be either black or brown, but my flesh is always cream-coloured. I am primarily a cold weather crop as my taste gets sweeter after the ground has been covered with frost. My seed ball opens up every morning, works until noon, then closes up for the day. Great work if you can get it. Strangely enough my flavour has been compared to that of oysters, which is only true if you consume me while eating oysters. I think I have a mild flavour, which can be compared to a cross between globe artichokes and asparagus. In either colour, you must peel me before eating and my flesh will turn black fast when exposed to fresh air. To avoid this you can soak me in vinegar or lemon water, or boil me for 15 minutes before peeling. Do not overcook me or I will get all mushy on you. Cold I am great shaved into salads. I blend particularly well with potatoes, leeks, and spinach. I can be glazed like carrots, used in soups or stews, baked au gratin, braised with veal, or topped with a béchamel or cheese sauce. I am a good source of potassium as well as providing vitamins B6 and C. I also contain inulin, a carbohydrate starch replacement that does not effect the level of blood sugar.

WHAT AM I?

Take a Bite of BC

We are excited to get back to another year of fresh deliveries on Take a Bite of BC for fall 2019. This year Take a Bite of BC is celebrating 10 years of bringing top quality products to Teaching kitchens in BC. It seems like only yesterday that we were running this program as a pilot in 14 schools! We have seen so much growth and positive changes over the years, from reaching 55 schools, launching our Spotlight Series with the help of our producers, and the many partner appreciation events at schools put on by you, our chefs. We will be announcing some special events later in the year that will celebrate the 10th anniversary of this program.

This fall we have 55 schools enrolled in our Take a Bite of BC program who will be receiving deliveries of fresh, BC product directly into their teaching kitchens. The first delivery will include the following donations from very generous partners:

Blueberries - Silver Valley Farms Ltd
 Cabbage, Red/Green - BC Fresh
 Canola Oil - Alberta Canola Producers
 Canola/Olive Oil blend - Alberta Canola Producers
 Fresh Cranberries - Ocean Spray
 Butter Lettuce - Windset Farms
 Crescendo Peppers - Windset Farms
 Turkey - BC Turkey Marketing Board & Sunrise Poultry

Opportunity for Students

During the summer months Chef Randle promotes our foundation at various events around the Fraser Valley. He often has Culinary Arts students that join him in these events to help cook and serve samples to the crowd. If any of your students are interested in helping Chef Randle at one of these events you can contact him to find out more.

You can see some of the great events that Chef Randle attended in August and September here!

Chef Randle attended this event in September with Culinary Arts students from the Delta area to promote BC product and how it is used in our programs.

PNE Agriculture Showcase

Chef Randle also attended the PNE in Vancouver to present some cooking demos and promote our programs and recipes.

As always, we look forward to another year of Take a Bite of BC with all of you. Thank you to all of you for supporting our mandate of bringing agriculture into the classroom.

Mahle House Dinner

In our hometown of Cedar, on Vancouver Island the Culinary Arts students from Cedar Community Secondary were a part of a very special event that happened. On the evening of June 3rd, at the prestigious “Mahle House Restaurant”, the young cooks prepared and served a table d’hôte menu under the guidance of owners Tara and Stephen Wilson and their amazing staff. Many weeks of hard work and training went into preparing for this collaboration and it was a fantastic success for everyone.

When Chef Stephen Wilson proposed to host a special dinner at his restaurant in partnership with the culinary arts class, I have to admit I had some concerns about the logistics. Although it didn’t take long for me to realize that this was an incredible opportunity to inspire and motivate our students. Chef Stephen graciously volunteered to come to our school on several occasions prior to the event in order to instruct the students. He demonstrated the cooking methods they would use to prepare the top-quality menu from ingredients he provided. The lessons created a conversation about where our foods come from, different cooking styles and designing the elements of each course on the menu. Ultimately this event delivered a real-world experience and an exceptional learning opportunity for the students.

The whole process was an incredible learning journey for all of us, as well as a delightful experience for our guests. The restaurant was fully reserved days before the big event, the food and service were outstanding and the whole evening was a definite success. Funds raised by the evening have been used to present well needed chef uniforms for the students in the culinary arts program. Check out the photos of the evening including the students at work in the restaurant and Chef Wilson wearing one of the new chef coats.

BCCASA Executive

The BCCASA Constitution outlines the nomination and voting procedures.

The BCCASA Constitution states that the election will be run as part of the BCCASA AGM every odd year.

You may nominate yourself for any position and nominating for multiple positions is allowed. Nominations must be sent to the Secretary by the deadline dates stated below.

However, once elected to a position, you are automatically excluded from election to any others.

If more than one person nominates for the same position (eg: President), both candidates will have the opportunity to speak to the members of the Association present at the AGM for up to 5 minutes. Nominees unable to attend will have the option to provide a written statement to be read by a delegate. A private ballot will then be conducted to determine the elected representative.

There will only be a call for nominations on the day of the AGM if no one has nominated or been nominated for a position.

Any positions left vacant after the AGM will remain vacant until an interested BCCASA member comes forward.

BCCASA Nomination:

What to do to be considered for the BCCASA Executive Committee

Positions available:

President,

1st Vice-President

2nd Vice-President

Treasurer

Secretary

1st Director

2nd Director

Nominees must adhere to the nomination guidelines set in the BCCASA Constitution.

For a complete list and position descriptions, visit the BCCASA website BCCASA.ca or in this edition of the Bouquet Garni.

2019 BCCASA ELECTION TIMETABLE:

Tuesday October 01, 2019: Nominations for positions open.

Friday October 18, 2019: Nominations for positions close.

Wednesday October 22, 2019: Absentee voting closes. See PSA Election Rules for more info on online absentee voting.

Friday October 25, 2019: AGM commences. Nominations will be taken from the floor only if there are no nominees.

Elected representatives will be announced on BCCASA social media after the count has been completed.
