

Squamish Lil'wat Culinary Arts Teacher Conference

Skwxwú7mesh Lil'wat7úl
Cultural Centre

May 11, 2024

The Culinary Arts Teacher Conference's aim is to provide a platform for Indigenous chefs and educators of the Squamish Lil'wat Cultural Centre to share their knowledge, techniques and traditions. The conference will feature workshops, discussions, and presentations focusing on Indigenous ingredients, cooking methods and cultural preservation. Attendees will have the opportunity to learn from renowned Indigenous chefs and educators, exchange ideas, and celebrate the rich diversity of Indigenous culinary heritage to enhance pedagogy guided by the B.C. Culinary Arts Curriculum.

Conference Fee: $200.00

Morning Session

- Delegate Welcome
- Guided Tour of the Squamish Lil'wat Cultural Centre's Current and Permanent Exhibits
- Traditional Bannock Making Education
- Lunch Inspired by the Traditions and Flavours of the Squamish and Lilwat First Nations

Afternoon Session

- Indigenous food lessons led by SLCC Curator including traditional methods of collection, harvesting, preservation, storage, and cooking.
- Tour the curated selection of educational resources related to Indigenous cuisine, cooking techniques, and traditions.

Registration Information

1. Follow the link below to pay conference fee.

<https://cimsweb.deltasd.bc.ca/publicconnect/DistrictPayOnline.aspx?id1=DE&id2=CULINA>

2. After you have completed payment, you will receive an email with the online booking promo code to receive the BCCASA negotiated pricing within 48 hours. You will also receive a survey link to list any dietary restrictions.
3. Please note, refunds will not be available after April 26, 2024.

Crystal Lodge Information

- Discounted rates have been negotiated at the Crystal Lodge. You will receive your promo code after online payment.
- No rooms are being held in block, rooms are based on availability.
- Rates will no longer be valid after April 29th or when hotel reaches 80% capacity.
- Check in time is at 4:00pm and check out time is 11:00 am.
- Parking is an additional $29.00 per vehicle, per night.

